

AACC CHAIR & COMMITTEE STRUCTURE

The role of the Coaches Chair was originally established to be the voice of the coaches across Australia and be their representative on the Artistic Committee (now AATC). Both CAOC and the AACC are subsidiaries of the AATC which maintains the over-all responsibility for Artistic Skating in Australia.

It is recognised that the current role of AACC Chair is beyond the ability of any one person to maintain and to be an effective contributor to the AATC and the accredited coaches. Therefore, a new structure has been proposed to ensure that the Aim of the AACC is achieved.

Overall Aim

To create an educational and inclusive approach to coaching across Australia's artistic coaches.

Objective

That skaters may achieve their artistic skating potential through quality coaching.
